MENTORING FOR GREATER IMPACT

DATE: AUGUST 19, 2023 | TIME: 7PM TO 1AM

VENUE: MARTIN'S CROSSWINDS

6817 DOGWOOD RD, BALTIMORE, MD 21244

Nigerian National Anthem

Arise, O compatriots, Nigeria's call obey
To serve our fatherland
With love and strength and faith
The labor of our heroes past
Shall never be in vain
To serve with heart and might
One nation bound in freedom, peace and unity.

Oh God of creation, direct our noble cause
Guide our leaders right
Help our youth the truth to know
In love and honesty to grow
And living just and true
Great lofty heights attain
To build a nation where peace and justice shall reign.

National Pledge

I pledge to Nigeria my country
To be faithful, loyal and honest
To serve Nigeria with all my strength
To defend her unity and uphold
Her honor and glory
So help me God.

United States National Anthem

O! say can you see
By the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last
gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there;
O! say does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines in the stream:
'Tis the star-spangled banner, O! long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

OUR LADY OF APOSTLES SECONDARY SCHOOL YABA SCHOOL SONG

1. Queen of Apostles, O Mary we hail thee
Queen and Mother of us thou art;
And we pour sweet praises upon thee;
As they rise from our loving hearts;
When they reach thee, beyond the skies;
Turn to us thy merciful eyes:

Chorus:

Watch O'er thy children our Queen and our mother;
We to God's Service our lives have sworn
Think of us; Speak for us;
Work with us; Plead for us;
Queen of Apostles, dear star of the morn'.

2. Queen art thou of the shining angels;
Queen art thou of the happy Saints;
Mother and Queen of us thy children;
Send us help when our courage fails.
Spotless Mother and Queen divine; All the love of our hearts is Thine:

Chorus...

3. Bless us with thy Holy Blessing,
As we gather around thy throne,
Lay thy hand, with a tender pressure;
On this school which is all thy own.
While we are here, and when we are far...;
Light up our way dear morning star;

Chorus...

PRESIDENT'S WELCOME ADDRESS

It is my distinct pleasure to welcome you to our Alumni reunion weekend culminating in our gala night this evening.

Our Lady of Apostle Secondary School Yaba, Lagos, molded me into who I am today, hence I stepped up to serve as the President of the North America Chapter (USA, Canada, and the Caribbean).

I thank the pioneers of the idea of establishing the Our Lady of Apostles Secondary School, Yaba, Alumni North America Chapter - Ms. Pastor Okulate, Esther Macauley, Frankie Alika, Roli Aroyewun. This was a greatly needed step to bring us together as sisters, to network, bond, and give back to our Alma Mater through mentorship programs, donations, educational activities, etc. We also serve as a nucleus to provide information to alumni relocating to the USA, Canada, and the Caribbean Islands.

We have made a difference in the various communities we live in by visiting and making donations to women's programs, female prisons, Boys and Girls Clubs, etc.

In accordance with our theme, we engaged the school administration back home in Nigeria as well as work with the Our Lady of Apostles Secondary School Old Girls Association in Lagos, Nigeria to provide mentorship programs and donations to our school.

We look forward to more engagements with the school and our communities in North America by bringing our various professional experiences to help the society.

Dr. Felicia Bassey Uduak-Akamune

BIOGRAPHY OF THE CHAIRMAN Mr. Richard H. Macauley

Richard H. Macauley is a Federal Law Enforcement leader with 22+ years of national security management expertise in Tactical, Presidential, Dignitary Protection, Crisis and Consequence Management, Physical Security, Active Shooter Training, Policy Development, and Implementation. He currently serves as the Acting Chief of the United States Secret Service Uniformed Division. He was recruited by the United States Congress to assist with improving the security of the United States Capitol after the January 6 attack, where he served as the Assistant Sergeant at Arms and Director of the Police Services Division of the US House of Representatives. He previously spent 21 plus years of distinguished service with the United States Secret Service (USSS), where he served in numerous leadership positions. He commanded the Flagship branch in the agency, where he served as the Deputy Chief of the USSS White House Branch/Presidential Protection Division. As the Deputy Chief, he was responsible for the management and oversight of all security and protective operations tasked with Presidential and First Family protective operations. In this capacity he managed strategic, financial, protective operations, physical infrastructure security and tactical operations of over 700 sworn personnel at the White House Complex.

As the Deputy Chief, Special Operations Branch, he was responsible for the management and oversight of all Secret Service tactical units tasked with Presidential and Vice-Presidential protective operations, both domestic and International. In this capacity, he managed a budget and resources of millions of dollars' worth of weapons, munitions, technological enhancements, vehicles, and a robust training program. Previously, Macauley served as Deputy Branch Commander and Watch Commander over the White House Complex, and Lieutenant of the White House Joint Operations Command Center. He additionally served as a supervisor of the Secret Service's highly trained Emergency Response Team (SWAT), Hazardous Agent Medical Mitigation Emergency Response Team (CBRNE), Counter Assault Instructor, and Program Manager of the Special Operations Training Branch at the Secret Service's accredited law enforcement academy.

He additionally served as a supervisor of the Secret Service's highly trained Emergency Response Team (SWAT), Hazardous Agent Medical Mitigation Emergency Response Team (CBRNE), Counter Assault Instructor, and Program Manager of the Special Operations Training Branch at the Secret Service's accredited law enforcement academy.

Macauley has extensive qualifications and operations in Emergency Medicine, Chemical Biological Radiological Nuclear defensive measures. Due to his extensive tactical background, he conceptualized and implemented a middle perimeter rapid response/hardening Specialized Rifle Unit at a National Security facility. He also was responsible for developing, training and implementing an active shooter and emergency operational plan for a six-hundred-person police force. He has written, developed, briefed, and trained active shooter/tactical operational response plans for over a decade. With more than 22 years of diverse public safety experience, Macauley is adept at managing complex, multi-jurisdictional, joint and combined operations, and critical incident response.

As a graduate of the FBI Crisis Management Coordinator Course, he is well equipped with the aptitude to coordinate, manage, and make critical decisions at the executive level, and collaborate crisis response with local, state, and federal partner agencies. He served as Division Executive in the Joint Coordinating Command Center in National Special Security Events (NSSE), such as the Democratic National Convention, the 2015 PAPAL visit (NYC), and the overall HAZMAT coordinator for the 2012 Presidential Inauguration.

Over the course of his career, Macauley has been awarded numerous distinguished performance awards and commendations. He has been named US Secret Service Employee of the Year (2013 & 2018), received multiple Life Saving Awards (2012, 2015, 2019), and most recently, awarded the prestigious US Secret Service Valor Award (2019 & 2020). He was recognized and awarded a Proclamation by the City of Lawrenceville, New Jersey. He is a graduate of the Albany College in London, UK and a graduate of the Homeland Security Executive Leadership in Consequence/Crisis Course at the Harvard Kennedy School in Boston, Massachusetts. Additionally, he is also a graduate of the FBI National Executive Institute, an intensive leadership training program for chief executives of the world's largest law enforcement agencies. He was selected as the agency executive designee to receive a PDSA Order of Merit at the House of Lords in London, UK.

Macauley recently conducted an executive level security assessment of the United Kingdom's, Palace at Westminster, and the Buckingham Palace in London, England. Macauley conducted a podcast to discuss diversity, inclusion, and improve officer training at the White House Complex. Macauley served his local community by volunteering as a firefighter and Emergency Medical Technician for over decade. He is currently a member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP), African American Federal Executive Association (AAFEA), and the National Tactical Officers Association (NTOA).

WHO WE ARE

The idea of Our Lady of Apostles Secondary School, Yaba, Alumni Association USA-Canada was hatched in 2011 at a Cheesecake Factory dinner with Esther Macauley, Edith Ibuzo, Frankie Alike, and Feyisitan Okulate. Thereafter, Roli Aroyewun resuscitated the idea after some years to establish the alumni in the UK (United Kingdom) and the United States of America. Through several teething stages, we evolved to a non-profit 501(c)3 organization servicing the local communities in various states in the USA, Canada, and the Caribbean Islands.

We made several donations to our alma mater, Our Lady of Apostles Secondary School, Yaba, as well as donations to the Boys and Girls Club USA. We donated hygiene products to the female prisons in Maryland, USA.

In 2022, OLA Alumni Association North America collaborated with the OLA Old Girls Association in Nigeria to establish and finance a train-the-trainer program, Mentoring the Confident Girl Child, led by Dr. Abiola Saba of OLA North America. Participants included 43 facilitators (OLA alumni), 100 students, and about 20 executives from both the USA and Nigeria. The Confident Girl Child Program was a huge success and a positive way to build and nurture our girls. Funds from this fundraising gala will be used to sustain this training program, support the school health clinic, the boarding house, as well as our various community outreach programs in the USA.
